

Daisy Charm

Before completing this charm, girls should have completed the Be Wild, Be Free patch

Juliette Gordon Low (JGL), founder of girl scouts, was nicknamed Daisy as a child. This is why our youngest members are called Daisies. In order to earn this Daisy charm, you will learn a little history of girls scouts.

Part 1: Learn about Juliette Gordon Low (JGL)

With your troop or family, read a book on JGL. What are some of the funny or amazing things she did during her life? How did she get her nickname? Where did she get the idea for girl scouts? Did you learn anything new about Juliette Low you didn't know before?

You can find books at your local library. Some ideas of book titles:

1. Juliette Gordon Low by Kathleen V. Kudlinski
2. Juliette Gordon Low: The Remarkable Founder of the Girl Scouts by Stacy A. Cordery
3. Here Come the Girl Scouts!: The Amazing All-True Story of Juliette 'Daisy' Gordon Low and Her Great Adventure by Shana Corey

Or you can use the internet to find information about JGL

With your troop, discuss what you found most interesting, funny, or amazing about her.

Part 2. Share your knowledge of JGL

Your troop can make a poster telling about JGL and share it with another troop or with your service unit.

You can hold a birthday party for JGL (her birthday is on Oct 31!) and share your information there or during Girl Scout Birthday.
